Washington, D.C.: Capital Area Food Bank*

Description of Program and Relief

In response to the COVID-19 outbreak, Capital Area Food Bank is distributing food at multiple pop-up pantry locations. It continues to run its monthly distribution of supplemental pick-up groceries for seniors who meet the income requirements, and its after-school meal program (which has been replaced with a “to-go meal” that children can pick up and eat at home) remains operational at all site locations that plan to remain open.

Organization

Capital Area Food Bank

Dates Available

Times and locations of pop-up food pantries and other services are updated daily at: https://www.capitalareafoodbank.org/covid19response/

After School Meal sites and times can be found by entering your zip code here: https://www.capitalareafoodbank.org/find-food-assistance/.

Eligibility Requirements/Restrictions

- Pop-up food pantries are available to everyone.
- Afterschool meals are meant for children (ages 19 and under).
- Senior programs are meant for elderly individuals (60 and older), respectively. These programs are by application and require a maximum household income of no more than 130% above the poverty line. New applicants should call 202-644-9880 for additional information and latest updates about distribution centers and application processing.

Application Deadlines

None Identified
Contact Details

202.644.9800 (DC)

571.482.4770 (VA)

Additional Information

For more information on the Pop-Up Pantries:

https://www.capitalareafoodbank.org/covid19response/

For more information on the After School Meals:

For more information on the Senior Brown Bag program:

https://www.capitalareafoodbank.org/what-we-do/direct-food-distribution-programs/senior-brown-bag/

For more information on the Grocery Plus and My Groceries to Go! programs:

https://www.capitalareafoodbank.org/what-we-do/direct-food-distribution-programs/commodity-supplemental-food-program/