Louisville, Kentucky: Meal Pick-Up Program for Seniors (Metro March for Meals)

Description of Program and Relief

The Metro March for Meals program will distribute up to 1,000 frozen meal packs each weekday for pick-up at six locations throughout Louisville on a rotating schedule (please review the website or call the number listed below for the most up-to-date information on the pickup sites). The meals are intended to help seniors ages 60 and older while Louisville responds to the COVID-19 pandemic. Meals are available on a first-come, first-served basis from 10 a.m. until noon and are limited to one box per person, per week. Each box contains five frozen meals. Older adults in need are advised to go to the center closest to their homes for assistance.

Homebound senior clients served by Louisville Metro Senior Nutrition's Meals on Wheels program will receive their meal delivery once per week with a five-frozen meal pack through April 3. These clients are being contacted by a Louisville Metro Senior Program staff member to confirm their delivery date.

Government or Lead Agency

Office of Resilience & Community Services of the City of Louisville

Dates Available

Eligibility Requirements/Restrictions

Must be a Jefferson County resident and be 60 years and older (proof of age must be provided). Participants are requested to stay in their cars for meal pickup to help ensure their safety; walk-ups to the distribution sites are not allowed.

Application Deadlines (If Applicable)

N/A
Contact for More Information

For current updates and more information on Metro March for Meals, call (502) 574-5223 or click on the program flyer.

List of Additional Information

For additional information, please visit: https://louisvilleky.gov/government/resilience-and-community-services