“Ken’s strategic sense for the business dynamic of restructurings— informed by his work on some of the largest bankruptcies in history both as a lawyer and as a financial advisor – will make him an incredible asset to our clients. Many of us have worked alongside or opposite Ken over the years, and have long held him in the highest regard,” said Paul, Weiss Restructuring Department Co-Chairman Paul M. Basta.

Mr. Ziman is exceptionally skilled at navigating the intersection of legal and financial issues in complex restructuring matters. His significant debtor-side representations have included, among others, PG&E Corporation, Takata Corporation, Gavilan Resources LLC, CGG Holdings (U.S.) Inc., Millennium Health, LLC, Dendreon Corporation, Exide Technologies, Savient Pharmaceuticals, Inc., Select Staffing and MF Global Holdings Ltd. “Ken is a stellar restructuring advisor and strategist,” said Paul, Weiss Restructuring Department Co-Chairman Andrew N. Rosenberg. “Equally important, Ken shares our commercial, collaborative approach to solving our clients’ most critical business challenges, our commitment to client service and our dedication to mentoring others.”

Mr. Ziman earned an A.B. from Colgate University, and a J.D. from the University of Pennsylvania Law School.
